Removal of a Tumor.

The removal of a tumor from a woman in Pailadelphia last week has already been mertioned in the Gazatte. The following partionlars of the operation are from the Times of that city:

"Pale and picched in features, a woman of large proportions was carried into the clinic room of the University Hospital, where Dr. William Goodell was busy arranging a case of gittering surgical instruments subsiquently employed in an operation of an unusual enerscter. The subject was a woman 31 years of ege, mother of three children, who had come from her home to the little hamlet of Blanchard. Centre coupy, to have determined by the knife the question of her existence. There were about thirty physicians present and a group of students, who watched the operation with interest. The patient was about 5 feet 5 icobes in hight, and by so usl mescurement 5 feet 12 inches in girth, cr within 3 inches as great around as she was in stature. The cause of her abnernal obdition was an evarian tumor, which had already attained a weight much greater than her body and was slowly and surely sapping her vitali y. The tu nor made its atpeerance nine years ago, and from the star grow with amezing rapidity. For some time the weman has been absolutely unable to assume ary other than a sitting pis ure, the very sot of lying down making death certain by sufficiation. After administering other, the i sensible sati c was placed in the best position her great buts would permit and the incision made. The keene ged knife s ok deep into the flash and the defi fl. gars of the skilled surgeon were busy in sep arating the tumor from the life it was feeding upon. When the mass had been completely taken away it was placed in a tub of the largest size and filled the vessel within three inches of the top. The tumor was then placed upon the scal is and was scartified to weigh 112 pounds the largest, it is believed, (v.r. rim wed from a human being Subsequently the patient, now reduced to a mere skeletor, and han, ing to life by the mirst thread, was gintly litted to the scales and was found to weign about 75 pounds. or 37 less than the mass just taken from her body On recovering consciousnes, the patient could carealy expres the sense of relief the experi-The absence of the we ghtthat had been burden to her for so many years was so novel and yet so plets int that she was comparatively bucyint in spirit. THE PERSECUTION OF THE JEWS .- From all that oan belearned the outrages upon the Jews of Russia have in no way been exaggerated if itdeed, the tru h in all cases, has even been told. There has been nothing like it since the Bulgarian horrors of 1876. At Elizabethgrad, where the Jaws numbered some thirty thousand, the scenes were aw'ul. For two days the rioting lasted. Some for y Jawishs were brutally ou reged; several young women leapt from windows to save 'hemselves from a wers; fate; an old man was fling from his roof of a honefor toying to save his daughter; and it is estimated that the property descrayed or stolen amounted to 2 000,000 rubbs. As Kiewithe mib, dissproted in their reach for plueder, coght up a little child three years old and flang it from the wied w. It fell dead at the tees of a compacy of Cossacks. At first the rioting was confined to the rural districts, and in the little villages the scenes of brutality and cruelty rivalled those of the larger towns. At Balka, on the Daieper, there was but one Jewish family. The husband was absent, his wifand a little daugher being alone. After having grossly ourraged the poor woman the ruffians fired the bouse to conceal their crime. the poor child hidden in a ditch all this time an oblooker. At Goegkiew a Jewish inkeeper was cooped to one of his own barrels and tossed into the Daieper. In another case a house was ficed, and while the wife and mother looked on, the father and two children were roasted aliva. But the details are as endless as they are borrible. This rioting has been continuous, and their outrages have been incessant since April, 1881. STRANGE ADVENTURE,-The Lynchburg would live.

News relates a story of how a merchant of that city was victim'z:d by a crazy colored man and arrested on a charge of ocu sterfeiting. During a recent visit to Salem the merchant was approsched by a colored man who represented him elf as an internal revenue agent, and desired the merchant, who is designated as Mr. S. to take a bundle for him to Cave Spring, whither bit parties were going, the progro on horseback and Mr. S. in a burgy. On arriving at the latter place, the man took his bundle and asked Mr. 8, to change him a ten-dollar note. At this the gentleman's suspicions were aroused, and he decised to change the note. After transacting his business at Cave Spring the gentleman returned to Salema, and i hands of the sheriff charged with passing coutterf it money. Upon being arrested the man declared that Mr. S. was an accomplice of his n making and passing countertait money, and Mr. S. wisforthwi h arrested. He wis isken to the magistrate's office, where the colored man stated that Mr S had assisted him to robbing nine banks in Bision, and that he had in his possession $17,000 in ocuprerfeit bils At this orisis Mr. S. b. h ught bim elt of a gentleman in Salem who knew him in imately, and according y sent for his triend, who at once appeared and identified the unfortunate merchant to the sa isfaction of the ju tice, and he was soot rlingly released. The colored mac goes by the came of "Dr." Peon, and was several times arrested in Lyochburg some time ago for furgers, but was acquited on the grounds of insanity.
